Rick's Garden Tips

Spring is finally here and many wonderful events with nature take place at this of the year. Perennials are growing once again and our lawns are starting to turn green. The buds on our trees are swelling and ready to show their beautiful flowers and green leaves. With respect to landscape care, this is the perfect time to fertilize our lawns, trees and plants. Mulching is also an important part of our landscape maintenance. Some of the benefits are as follows: Helps maintain soil moisture, controls weeds, improves soil fertility and can give planting beds a uniform, well-cared for look. The best types of mulch are organic based, such as wood chips, pine needles and compost mixes.

Please stay away from inorganic mulches, (dyed) as they have a synthetic base and do not decompose or improve the soil structure. For these reasons, most horticulturist and arborist prefer organic mulches. For more information on total landscape care, see www.treesaregood.com. Remember, Arbor Day is April 30th, so let's plant a tree, as there are many benefits that our environment receives. (RK)

Spring Clean Up Help is Coming

Our neighbor, Karen Wishart, is a member of the board of Re-Source York, a non-profit organization committed to reducing landfill waste by accepting donations of usable building materials, remodeling cast offs, and usable furniture, household items, TVs and appliances.

The proceeds of the resale in their 235 N. Beaver St. and 405 Carlisle Ave stores are shared with Bell Socialization Services of York. This is an opportunity to be "green" while bettering York County. They will have their truck come to Old East York on Wed April 14. and also April 28 for removal of donated items. All donations are tax deductible. Call 717 852-7574 if you have any questions and to schedule a pick up or call Karen at 887 0679 for further information. They will make every effort to provide a 1 hour window of time for the pickup. And don't forget to visit their stores. You never know what you might find! (KW)
